The Supreme Court of the United States;

No. 479.

William Fagan et al, Plaintiffs in Error vs

The State of Louisiana, Ex. Rel. S. Belden, Atty. General, defendant in Error.

The undersigned of the Plaintiffs in error, being duly sworn depose and say, that, on the 9th of May 1870, the above entitled case then pending in the Supreme Court of the State of Louisiana on Appeal from the Fifth District Court for the Parish of Orleans, was finally decided by the said Supreme Court adverse to the undersigned; that a writ of from the Supreme Court of the United States to the said Supreme Court of the State of Louisiana, was allowed affiants, removing the record & proceedings in said case and all things concerning the same, from the said Supreme Court of the State of Louisiana to the Supreme Court of the United States, by his Honor, Joseph P. Bradley Associate Justice, a copy of which writ of error with the necessary & approved bond was lodged & filed in said Supreme Court of Louisiana in due time so that the same should operate as a supersedeas, and that a copy of said Writ was also cost of Sixty thousand dollars & had erected thereon wharves, land landings for ships & steamers, & had constructed yards, pens and stables for the purpose of receiving, stabling & preserving cattle & other animals and had also built slaughter houses and abattoirs in which to slaughter animals & prepare their food for market in New Orleans and also erected dwellings for their workmen & those employed about the premises, all upon the land thus purchased & were in the progress of making other constructions of a similar nature & extending those already made & had on the ~~27th~~ of July last already expended upwards of one hundred thousand dollars in said constructions and improvements, and had contracts for additional improvements to the extent of many more thousand dollars which were stopped on or about that day by the said Sheriff through his deputies acting under the order & requisition of the said Judge of the 8th District Court, based on the motion of the said Attorney General; that the said Sheriff of the Parish of Orleans acting as aforesaid, did on or about the 27th of July 1870, place one of his deputies in charge of the property & premises aforesaid & prevented these affiants & their employees and associates from erecting any docks, ways, wharves &c. on said premises, from receiving, keeping, guarding or preserving any beavers, cattle, cows or any other animals designed for human food in the Parishes of Orleans, Jefferson & St. Bernard and from slaughtering any such animals in said Parishes except at the Building of the Crescent City Live Stock Landing and Slaughter House Company, and still has at this date an officer on the premises aforesaid to enforce the requirements of the said order of the 8th District Court of the Parish of Orleans, as will more fully appear by the said Sheriff's return of his execution of said order found in the Record aforesaid marked exhibit B, and ever since the said 27th of July 1870 & now these affiants and their associates have been & are prevented by the forcible ~~execution~~ execution of said order as aforesaid from the enjoyment of their property and rights as hereinbefore more particularly described and as they believe in contempt of the authority vested in this Court by their said writ of Error - and to their great damage in an amount almost ~~incalculable~~ 'incalculable' and unless relieved of an indefinite duration:

And affiants further dep~~re~~ and say that they are deprived of the use of their said property & in a great measure thrown out of employment and this notwithstanding their writ of Error as aforesaid & their right in the premises and that their only remedy and relief is from this Honorable Court.

within ten days from said 9th of May 1870 lodged in the said Fifth District Court for the Parish of Orleans, to wit on the 16th of May 1870 - as will more at large appear by the Record in this case in this Honorable Court & in the transcript of subsequent proceedings in the original case in the District Court, of the Parish of Orleans, which is annexed to & made part of this affidavit, marked exhibit B =

Affiants further depose & say, that, notwithstanding said writ of error, having the force of a Supersedeas & subsequent to the filing of said copy of the writ of error, the said Relator Simeon Belden, attorney General, moved a transfer of the Record from the Fifth District Court to the Eighth District Court for the Parish of Orleans & proceeded in said Eighth District Court to take proceedings against affiants and the Judge of said Court, Henry C. Dibble, proceeded to entertain & exercise jurisdiction in this cause, notwithstanding the protest of affiants & their demurring & excepting to the same as more fully & at large appears in the Record of subsequent proceedings, in exhibit marked B, hereto annexed as aforesaid & to act adversely to affiants & their counsel for appearing for them & endeavoring to protect them in their rights ordering the Sheriff of the Parish of Orleans, Thomas L. Maxwell, & instructing & requiring him to enforce the preliminary injunction issued in this case & to prevent further violation of the same, or in other words to prevent these ^{those} affiants & those associated with them ^{from} their employ & doing business with them from pursuing their usual & customary avocations & enjoy their rights of property & labor as other citizens of the State of Louisiana and of the United States could do;

And Affiants further depose and say that they and their Associates have been for many years, in New Orleans and vicinity, engaged in the occupation and business of some of them in receiving, keeping, preserving and selling, beef cattle, horses, sheep, swine & other animals brought to the City of New Orleans & the others in buying, slaughtering & preparing animal food & vending the same in the Markets of New Orleans & vicinity; that in the year 1869 they had formed themselves into a Corporation known as the Live Stock Dealers & Butchers Association of New Orleans for the more feasible carrying on of their business, had purchased land fronting on the Mississippi River of the left or West Bank thereof at a and say, that on the 9th of May 1870, each and all of said suits were then pending in the Supreme Court of the State of Louisiana & were on that day by the said Supreme Court finally decided & adversely to these affiants; that affiants immediately sued out writs of error from the Supreme Court of the United States to the Supreme Court of the State of Louisiana for the removal of the Records & proceedings & all other things pertaining to said cases from said Supreme Court of Louisiana, to the Supreme Court of the United States, which writs of error were allowed on the 13th of that, notwithstanding said writs of error, operating as ~~so~~ supersedeas in each of said causes & notwithstanding ^{dependents in error in said causes} said parties are duly cited to appear in the Supreme Court of the United States, as appears on the return ~~of~~ the citations in each of those causes, the said Crescent City Live Stock Landing & Slaughter House Co. their officers, agents, employees and Attorneys and the said S. Belden Attorney General of the State of Louisiana persist in their efforts ~~in~~ against these affiants and their interests and in violation of their right under said writs of error & in contempt of the authority of this Court: That on the 3^d of June 1876, the said Crescent City Live Stock Landing and Slaughter House Company, through Franklin J. Pratt, its President, and Charles A. Weed one of its Directors, by means of security, and by the aid of Joseph P. Horner one of its counsel acting as its Attorney presented a petition to the Honorable the Eighth District Court for the Parish of Orleans, Henry C. Dibble, Judge, and from him obtained an order, called an injunction, commanding the City of New Orleans, D.C. Emory Administrator of Commerce of said City, E. W. Peirce Administrator of Police of said City, officers under the Charter thereof, & the Metropolitan Board of Police an independent organization under the laws of the State of Louisiana having exclusive police powers over the three parishes of Orleans, Jefferson & St. Bernard, and "enjoining them ~~to prevent~~ in the name of the State of Louisiana and of the 8th District Court to prevent any & all persons except the plaintiffs" therein meaning the said Slaughter House Company, "from landing, keeping or slaughtering, any cattle, beavers, colves, sheep, swine or other animals and from having, keeping & establishing any stock landings, yards, pens, slaughter houses or abattoirs at any point or place within the City of New Orleans or the parishes of Orleans, Jefferson or St. Bernard and to prevent & prohibit any and all persons from selling or offering for sale in the City of New Orleans any animal meat for human food not slaughtered & inspected at the Slaughter Houses of petitioners, plaintiffs" therein meaning said Crescent City Live Stock Landing & Slaughter House Company, and "to use all the powers conferred upon you" that is the defendants in said suit above named, to carry into effect this injunction." That on the 6th of June 1870 the said S. Belden, Attorney General, notwithstanding said writ of error in the suit of Wm Hogan et al, Plaintiffs in error vs the State of Louisiana, S. Belden, Atty. General No. 479- intervened & came into said suit in the 8th District Court Parish of Orleans, of the Crescent City Live Stock Landing and Slaughter House Company vs The Board of Metropolitan Police et als, No. 118 of the docket of that Court, and prayed that the injunction therein issued be made perpetual; which injunctions so called still remain in force as will appear by a complete transcript of the Record & proceedings in said cause hereto annexed and marked exhibit A & made part of this affidavit:

Affiants further depose and say that on the said 3d of June 1870, they & their Associates, Plaintiffs in error in the several suits, in the caption to this affidavit, were engaged, ~~some of the~~ and had been for a long time, ~~some~~ of them, in receiving, having landed, landed, penned and stabled, & of others, in purchasing, slaughtering and preparing for food, beefs, calves, sheep, swine and other animals, ~~of the~~ at wharves, landings, pens, yards, stables, & Slaughter Houses, established and created by them under & by virtue of their rights of Citizens of the State of Louisiana and of the United States, and in which they were protected by the various orders issued in these suits at the caption of this affidavit and especially in the suits ^{475, 476 &} Nos. 477 of the Docket of the Honorable the Supreme Court of the United States, which establishments were located at the place designated in said suits, ^{no. 477} to which reference is made; that without any notice, and ^{while} in the peaceful pursuit of their business and calling in their accustomed way, they had on the afternoon & evening ^{of the 4th of June 1870} prepared & covered to be prepared animal food of various kinds for the Markets of New Orleans to be vendued therein in order to supply the inhabitants of said City with food on the next & following days to the extent in value of over twenty thousand dollars, and were early on the morning of the 5th of June 1870 proceeding from their Slaughter House with their meats loaded in Carts to the various Markets of the City of New Orleans, when without notice or warning their Carts with the contents were seized by the Officers of the Metropolitan Police in obedience to the injunctive so-called issued by the 8th District Court as aforesaid, and detained in the street by said Police until the meat ~~was~~ was wholly destroyed & rendered not only unfit for use but offensive to the neighborhood.

Not a few loads of meats which had unperceived passed the Cordon of Police & reached the Markets were prevented by said Police acting as aforesaid from being taken into the Markets or sold therein in most instances become a total loss to these affiants and their Associates & Customers. Not this same course has been persisted in from the said 5th of June 1870 until the present time, and ~~has~~ caused the destruction of property of affiants and their associates to the extent of many thousand dollars in addition to the foregoing, and has wholly prevented them from pursuing their usual avocations ~~in~~ their usual ^{of business} places, and their property purchased by them & the buildings erected thereon in cost exceeding two hundred thousand dollars, ^{have thereby become} wholly useless to them ^{they have been} & compelled by these ^{proceedings} to cease business altogether or to go to the market & establishment of the said Crescent City Live Stock Landing and Slaughter House Company, ~~which is~~ and pay toll to said Company, which establishment is inconveniently located, not of sufficient capacity, & ill prepared for their accommodation and for the pursuit of their said ~~unlawful~~ business.

And affiants further depose and say that S. Belden, Attorney General, who intervened in the said suit of the Crescent City Live Stock Landing and Slaughter House Company vs the Board of Metropolitan Police et al., in the 8th District Court on the 6th of June 1870, being the first day the courts were open after the acts of the said Metropolitan Police which are above complained of were done, died on the 2nd of June 1870, the day preceding the commencement of proceedings in the 8th District Court by the said Slaughter

Police et als, and as Affiants verily believe in furtherance of the objects of the said Crescent City Live Stock Landing & Slaughterhouse Co. cause the Record in the suit of ~~the~~ State of Louisiana ex Relotine S. Belden Attorney General vs Wm Jagon et als, to be removed from the Fifth District Court of the Parish of Orleans to the 8th District Court for the Parish of Orleans where the next day the said Slaughterhouse Company instituted the suit of which Exhibit A. is a complete transcript & in which he intervening joined said Slaughterhouse Company on the 6th of said June 1870 - and that subsequently & with on the 15th of June 1870, notwithstanding, the writ of error allowed in said cause to the Supreme Court of the State of Louisiana, making a supersedeas notwithstanding the citation of the said S. Belden Attorney General to appear in the Supreme Court of the United States at Washington, which had been previously served upon him, and notwithstanding the lodgment of a certified copy of said writ of error, not only in the supreme court of the State of Louisiana but also in the Fifth District Court for the Parish of Orleans in due time, ^{with} all of which proceedings the said S. Belden was familiar, he in furtherance of his designs to aid & assist the said Crescent City Live Stock Landing & Slaughter House Company & while proceedings were pending in their suit against the Board of Metropolitan Police et als. did on the 15th of June take and proceeding ~~by rule to show cause~~, in said case of The State ex Rel. S. Belden vs Wm Jagon et als. in the said 8th District Court, by Rule to show cause on the defaults in said suit & originally, & now plaintiffs in error in the suit No. 479 of the Caption of this affidavit, and which the judge of the said Court Henry C. Sibble, ordered & proceeded although these respondents, protested against, & demurred & excepted thereto, as will fully appear by a Record of the proceedings in the suit of State of Louisiana ex Relations S. Belden City, General vs Wm Jagon et als. hereto annexed & marked exhibit B, and did notwithstanding the writ of error working as supersedeas as aforesaid & notwithstanding said protesting, demurring & excepting ^{did} ask the court, & the said H. C. Sibble, notwithstanding as aforesaid did grant an order to the Sheriff of the Parish of Orleans, Thomas L.

3/5
Maxwell, and at the instance of the said S. Belden & in the intent of the said Slaughter House Company, did intend and require him, the said Maxwell to enforce the preliminary injunction issued therein & to prevent a further action contrary thereto, and which the said Sheriff as instructed did execute, by placing one of his deputies, armed with the said order & instructions, in charge of the premises known as the Salem Plantation, being the Wharves, landing, stables, Slaughter Houses &c. where these affiants had located themselves and were carrying on their business & prevented these affiants and their associates, Plaintiffs in error in the several suits in the caption of this affidavit from erecting any docks, ways, wharves, etc on said premises, & from receiving, keeping, guarding or preserving, any beaver, cattle, cows, or any other animals designed for human food in the parishes of Orleans, Jefferson & St. Bernard, and from slaughtering any such animals in said parishes except in the building of the Crescent City Live Stock Landing and Slaughterhouse Company, and ever since the 27th day of July 1870 upon which day the said Sheriff placed his deputy in charge as aforesaid, until now, these affiants have been prevented as aforesaid by the said Sheriff Maxwell, under the order of the said Judge Noble, at the instance of the said Attorney General Balden, in combination ~~with the~~ ^{and} ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~and~~ ^{the}

of the said Crescent City Live Stock Landing & Slaughter House Company its officers, agents, employees and attorneys as aforesaid, in connection with the said Board of Metropolitan Police its officers and employees, and have suffered damages to a great amount, & been prevented in the enjoyment of their rights, & been compelled to go to the Slaughter House of the said Slaughter House Company & to pay toll to said Company ~~and~~ to abandon their own ample accommodations on their own premises & to occupy those of the said Slaughter House Co. not suitable, & inconvenient in location, and all this in violation of their rights ~~as~~ Citizens of the United States & under their writs of error herein read out and allowed them in the several suits at the instance of this affidavit, said writs acting as supersedeas; That all other remedy has been tried & exhausted by them without avail as against the acts of the said S. Balden

& the said Crescent City Live Stock Landing and Slaughter House Company; that in their proceedings in the suit in the 8th District Court as detailed in exhibit A. there affiants though not mentioned therein nor their associates, are the only parties designed by the plaintiff & intervenor therein, to be affected thereby, & are so affected; that the proceedings thus

No 475 on the docket of the Court.

The Crescent City Live Stock Landing & Slaughter house Co

In this case the said plaintiffs show to this Court, that during the month of May 1870, they obtained the writ of Error to the Supreme Court of Louisiana, gave the bond, obtained the citation & served a copy of the writ of Error in the clerk's office whereby the said case was transferred to this Court and a supercedas was effected, the said acts having been performed within ten days from the date of the final judgment in the said case - all of which will appear for the record.

The plaintiffs further show for the record & affidavits filed herewith, that with full notice of the reports aforesaid & their legal effect as a supersession of the execution of said judgment to evade the effect thereof and to enforce the judgment so obtained & superseded, ^{the defendants} did file a petition in the 8th District Court of the parish of Orleans setting forth their act of incorporation their claims under the said act and did ask of the Court a process directed to the City of New Orleans and the Metropolitan Board of Police to use their municipal powers to hinder and prevent all persons from doing or performing any of the acts which the plaintiffs have claimed the right to do in this suit and to enforce the exclusive privileges mentioned in the said act of incorporation as granted to the defendants - They further show that the Judge of said Court without any notice to the plaintiffs and without making them parties to said case of the act of incorporation of the said defendants but that they be permitted without molestation to pursue their business of tending sheep and slaughtering cattle horses swine and all other animals suitable for human food at such places and under such conditions as they may deem proper before the 1st day of June 1869 within said parish or in such portions of the same as the court may order & that the said 8th district court be prohibited from further action in the premises or giving them an opportunity to defend did cause to be issued to the said corporation, & boards of police writs by which they were peremptorily ordered to prevent any and all persons except the plaintiffs in that suit from licensing, keeping or slaughtering any cattle, hares, sheep, swine or other animals or from housing, keeping or establishing any stock landing yards pens slaughter houses or abattoirs at any point or place within the city of New Orleans, or the parishes of or Levee Jefferson or Saint Bernard & to prevent the selling or offering for sale in the city of New Orleans any animal meat for human food not slaughtered or inspected at the slaughter houses of the said plaintiffs. These corporations of New Orleans & the Metropolitan board of police men thus made themselves to enforce the judgments of the court that had been superseded by writs of error sent out as aforesaid for such - has been & is the effect of this proceeding

The plaintiffs have been able to do no act connected with their lawful business because of the said proceedings & for proof they refer to the record of said proceedings in the 8th district court & the affidavits filed

The plaintiffs upon the facts aforesaid move for a super-cedas and injunction addressed to the said defendant, the said city of New Orleans, & Metropolitan board of police to suspend any and all action upon the said matter & that they be required & enjoined not to hinder present or in any manner impede the plaintiffs from having, maintaining, keeping or establishing any of the landings pens, yards, abattoirs within the parishes aforesaid that are specified in the proceedings in the record in this court as far as any any business that they had been doing, as it was lawful for them to do before the passing
